Starboard Capital Partners, LLC (“Starboard”) is pleased to announce the sale of Heat Transfer Products Group, LLC (“HTPG”) to Rheem Manufacturing Company on December 2, 2013.

HTPG is a leading supplier of heat transfer components and equipment for refrigeration applications in the foodservice, food retail and other non-consumable markets. HTPG was acquired in July 2010 from Carrier Corporation. The exit produced a solid return for Starboard and Monomoy Capital Partners, the lead equity investor.
